JONAS LONG'S SONS.

They were standing before a perfume shop in Broad street as I passed them, two young ladies of manifestly good society, so refined was their appearance and so perfectly correct their tone. I could not help turning half around, and who should they be but the arch-foes of my own mind, Sybil Vane, and her bosom friend, Gwen O'Hara. It was Sybil that had spoken and she had said: "Fancy that little fellow throwing herself away on a man like that when she knows he only wants her for her money."

BIG FIRE IN HONSDALE.

Ten Buildings Are Destroyed—Loss $30,000. About 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning the interior of the McKenna Bros' cooper shop was found to be on fire. Three alarms were sounded which brought out the fire company with two engines. The above buildings were insured for a small amount. Contrivances were livery stable caught fire several times, but was saved with slight damage. Most of the household goods were removed from the dwellings. The plate glass windows on the opposite side of the street were broken by the heat.
